

Explore Your Future

St. Vrain's six Career Futures provide a framework for exploration that helps students discover their passions and prepare for their futures through hands-on learning, industry connections, and opportunities to earn college credit.

Explore by Future

Browse career futures to find programs that match your interests.

Explore by School

Find your high school to see all available programs and opportunities.

8 Programs

Healthcare and Bioscience

Prepares students for patient care and life science careers through hands-on labs, clinical skills, and authentic industry experiences in biomedical science, nurse aide, EMT, sports medicine, and biotechnology.

8 Programs

Engineering, Manufacturing, Air, and Space

Focuses on engineering, advanced manufacturing, automation, and aerospace. Students apply math and science through hands-on projects using CAD, fabrication, electronics, and flight technologies.

15 Programs

Business, Leadership, and Information Systems

Builds skills in entrepreneurship, business, finance, marketing, and technology. Students explore management, networking, cybersecurity, and data systems through real-world applications.

8 Programs

Communication, Arts, and Design

Develops creative and professional skills in visual arts, digital design, media production, journalism, theatre technology, and user experience through hands-on projects and portfolio development.

3 Programs

Energy, Natural Resources, and Agriculture

Connects students to energy, environmental, and agricultural careers through hands-on labs, fieldwork, and projects in renewable energy, sustainability, and resource management.

3 Programs

Public Service and Education

Prepares students for careers in public safety, law, education, and human services through hands-on learning that builds leadership, communication, and ethical decision-making.

To learn more and explore pathways available to students at St. Vrain Valley Schools, visit futures.svvsd.org.